2003 - 9:00 P.M. (CST)

Dr. Pollak is a highly regarded and internationally known transplant surgeon at the University of Illinois. Prior to April 1998, he was the Chief of Transplantation in the Department of Surgery at the University of Illinois in Chicago. He filed suit on behalf of the United States and State of Illinois. His Complaint alleges that he was removed from his positions and demoted for his opposition to the fraudulent operation of the Hospital's liver transplant program. The Complaints filed by Dr. Pollak and by the United States of America and the Attorney General of the State of Illinois further allege that in the operation of their liver transplant programs, the University of Illinois Hospital, The University of Chicago Hospital and Northwestern University Hospital and Clinics submitted false claims to the government and engaged in Medicare and Medicaid Fraud from January 1, 1995 to December 31, 1998.

Dr. Pollak is seeking reinstatement and to be made whole.
